A Frightful Disaster on the Northern Pacific.

TWO KILLED AND TWENTY HURT

A Car Derailed and Burned-Two Menbers of the Andrews Opera Company Perish-Other Wrecks.

BRAINARD, Minn. Jan. 15 -A frightful railroad accident occurred on the Northern Pacific road 7 miles east of Brainard at a o'clock a. m. 'The second section of Na. 2, with the Andrews opera company on board, Seft West Superior at midnight for Grand Forks. Near Janesville the train struck a broken rail, the engine and baggage car panning over in safety, but the sleeping our was derailed and ran some 300 feet on the ties when it teppled over, breaking loose from the train, and went down an embankment some five feet high, lying on its side.

The Ruins Take Fire. in a minute all was confusion. The sleeping inmates realized their peril. The Pullman conductor, Herbert C. Scott, was eas of the first to get outside, and when he did so no fire was visible, but as soon as windows were broken to liberate those inside flames shot out, and in very short order the car was enveloped.

Into the Bilter Cold. Willing hands of trainmen soon libersted those who were unable to extricate themselves, but none were able to save their clotters and the night being the coldest of the season, the thermometer reaching 16 below, the suffering of the injured was terrible.

Burned in the Wruck. At this time it was discovered that Mrs. Ed Audrews and Lillie Was were missing, but no human effort could render them assistance, as the car was a mass of flames. The injured were placed in a baggage-car and brought to Brainard and quartered at the Earlington hotel. A list of the dead and injured, so far as obtained, is as follows: The Victims.

Mrs. Ed Andrews (known as Miss Nannie Wilkinson), burned to death; Mrs. Little Was, of Minneapolis, burned to death: Piorence Joy, severely burned on hash and head, will probably die: May Dourlas, burned on head and arms, wi on hands and arms. Charred Beyond Recognition.

Miss Douglan, when she was brought from the car, was literally enveloped in flames, her hair being on are. The women were nearly nude. but were wrapped up as they were taken out. The bodies of the two romen burned to death were charred beyond all recognition, the heads, legs and arms being entirely gone. Mr. Ed Andrews rescued their little baby, and supposed his wife was safe until a count was made. He is wild with grief. The members of the company lost all they possessed, except hes frain atruments, watches and money.

KILLED AT A CROSSING.

Catcago, Jan. 15 .- At 10:30 Thursday evening limited express No. 9. west bound, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad, perashed into street car No. 222 at the crossing at Forty-seventh street and Stewart avenue. One woman was instantly killed, another died of her injuries and a score of passengers were thrown about the tracks, maimed, bruised and unconscious. The car was thrown 50 feet forward and crushed into a mass of splinters. It is beyond understanding how any of the passengers escaped alive. Criminal carelessness on the part of the employes of the rail road company is alone responsible for the awful wreck. A flagman and a yardman have been placed under arrest, as well as the street-car conductor and driver.

SULLIVAN SWEARS OFF. Tacona, Wash, Jan 12 John L. Sullivan the pugilist, is a convert to the blue cubbon cause. He reached Tacoma but in time to meet Francis Murphy, the temperance agitator, who is closing a series of meetings here. Murphy determined several days age to use his persuasive powers on the slugger when he reached town and successfully did so Thursday afternoon. After his performance at the Tacoma theater Wednesday night Sullivan went to a low dive and got beastly drunk. He did not retire until 6 o'clock Thursday morning. At 3 in the afterneon he got up and took a drive. On returning Francis Murphy and sev-eral newspaper men visited his room. For an hour the advocate of temperance eloquently pleaded his cause, during which Sullivan listened attentively. Finally Duncan B. Harrison and Manager Frank Moran, both of the Sullivan-Harrison combination, stated they would sign the pledge if Sullivan would. In a moment Mr. Murphy was pinning blue ribbons on their coats, and then they signed with ink. There is much speculation as to whether Sullivau will stand by his pledge. He says he will. Harrison mailed Sullivan's pledge to his mother in the east. Nearly 2,000 men attended a mass-meeting held at the Comique, a theater of the lower class. Murphy and Sullivan toth made addresses and several donned the HEAVY BANK FAILURE. BALTIMORE, Jan. 15.-Financial circles were startled Thursday by the announcement of the failure of J. J. Nicholson & Sons, one of the leading banking houses of Baltimore. The assignment was made to John M. Carter, lawyer, and Matthew K. Alken, bookkeeper of the firm, as trustees with bonds of $500,000, which indicated $250,000 assets. The liabilities are estimated at over $300,000, and may be $500,000. It is believed that the failure is a very bad one and that the sudden death of A. J. Nicholson. the brother, and another member of the firm, about a week ago, was caused by worry over the impending crash. He dropped dead while talking to several financiers in his private office over the firm's tightened circumstances. FOR PRESIDENT.

Prohibitionists Talk of Nominating Joseph Cook, the Boston Preacher. BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 15 - The prohibitionists of central Illinois, assembled here Thursday, discussed the question as to who would be their standard bearer in the presidential campaign next fall. It seems to be the general opinion that Rev. Joseph Cook, the Boston lecturer, will be tendered the nomination. The name of Mr. Cook was favorably considered by the prohibitionists and it is the opinion that he will give universal satisfaction to the party. While Mr. Cook has not been prominently connected with the management of the party, yet he has lectured a number of times on prohibition and is credited with being a firm believer in the party principles STOLE A TRAY OF DIAMONDS.

A Robber Brenks a Window and Makes

Away with Gams Worth $1,500. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 15 -W. J. Sarver's jewelry store, No. 46 Federal street, Allegheny, Pa., was the scene of a bold robbery early Thursday evening. A man, as vet unknown, walked rapidly up to the jewelry window, dent's deep regret and sincere condolence broke the glass with a railroad coupling pin, and selred a tray of valuable sage sent to Minister Lincoln: diamend rings. The night watchman of the building, hearing the crash, started in pursuit of the robber, but the latter made good his escape. The rings stolen were valued at $1,500.

Confesses That He Is L. T. Zink. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15 .- Charles T. Whitman, a prominent lumber dealer of Memphis, Tenn., was recently arrested for swindling A. C. Donly, of this city, twelve years ago out of 37,000 by forgery. He was then going under the name of L. T. Zink. Until now Whitman stoutly denied that he was Zink, but he confessed Thursday morning that he is the man. It is said that he has been doing a big business at Memphis.

Farmer Overton's Experience NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Jan. 15 .- A forger has been working here for the last few days. A week ago he went to J. H. Overton, a farmer and extensive stock dealer living near the city, and under a pretense of selling him a lot of hogs obtained his alguature. Then he cleverly transcribed it to several bank checks and negotiated the paper with different merchants. Wednesday the fraud was discovered, but the forger had fled. He secured over $1,000.

GRIEF ALL OVER GREAT BRITAIN

President Harrison's Message of Condolence-Death of a Number of Other Notable Men.

LONDON, Jan 15 -- From one end of Great Britain to the other great preparations are being made by all classes of people, those in civil life as well as those occupying official station, to give a final manifestation of their sympathy with the royal family and respect for its illustrious dead by attending the funeral of the late heir presumptive. The evidences are now that about every city, town and many smaller communities of the country will, if opportunity favors, be represented by delegations regularly appointed to attend the last ceremonies. At the various railroad offices it is learned that the number of inquiries made indicates an extraordinary desire on the part of great numbers of people to participate in the last bonors to the dead prince. Should the remains, however, be conveyed direct from Sandringham to Windsor it is Improbable that any great number of those anxious to take a part, however humble, in the funeral programme can be gratified. If it is ficcided that there shall be no state funeral procession the delegations which are expected to be appointed by the various cities will probably, as far as possible, group themselves at the stations along the route between Sandringham and Windson.

A Public Funeral

There is so much to be done in the way of preparation that the funeral can hardly take place till the end of next week. Public sentiment inclines to the plan for lying in state of the prince's body, but the prince and Wales are said to princess of oppose it. In any case the funeral will be of a military character, with a procession through London en route to Windsor, enabling a public expression of grief. The queen is reported to be suffering zentely because of her remembrance that for the last five years she opposed the plan for the union of the decessed prince and Princess Mary of Teek, only giving her consent a couple of months

Messages of Sympathy. President Carnot, of France, has telegraphed a message of condolence to Queen Victoria. Messages of sympathy and condolence have also been received by the queen from all the royal families of Europe, and, in fact, from the rulers of all the civilized countries of the world.

Regret from the President. Washington, Jan. 15.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, addressed a note to Secretary Blaine Thursday in which he said:

IN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. - For four hours a flerce warfare of debate waged in the house Thursday over the propesition of Mr. Holman (Ind.) to enforce economy, and when an adjournment was taken Mr. Holman had so far receded from the strict spirit of his resolution as to ask that the previous question be reconsidered in order that he might consider the advisability of to-day accepting an amendment modifying the sweeping declaration of the second clause of the

That many democrats if forced to meet the issue presented by the gentleman from Indiana will vote against the resolution there is now no doubt. As the resolution at present read; it is generally interpreted as presenting an insuperable bar, not only to steamship suusidies, but also to the sugar bounty, the Nicaragua canal blil, the world's fair loan, the improvement of rivers and harbors, appropriations for public buildings throughout the union and appropriations for Indian depredations and adjudicated cases from the court of claims. Naturally, therefore, the chairman of the appropriations committee had arrayed against him the friends of all the interests and enterprises so vitally affected, and it was impossible to draw the party lines in forcing the passage of a resolution of such a radical a char-
